1. Aims

This policy aims to ensure that:

- The academy trust's funds are used only in accordance with the law, its articles of association, its funding agreement and the latest Academies Financial Handbook
- The trust and those associated with it operate in a way that commands broad public support
- The trust has due regard to propriety and regularity, and ensures value for money, in the use of public funds
- Trustees fulfil their fiduciary duties and wider responsibilities as charitable trustees and company directors
- Members, trustees and staff are aware of what constitutes acceptable gifts and hospitality, and the process that must be followed if they are presented with any of the same

2. Legislation and guidance

This policy is based on the Academies Financial Handbook, which states that academy trusts should have a policy and register on the acceptance of gifts, hospitality, awards, prizes or any other benefit which might be seen to compromise the personal judgement or integrity of members, trustees, staff and/or any other representative of the trust.

This policy also complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

3. Definitions

4.3 The Headteacher

The Headteacher is responsible for ensuring that staff are aware of and understand this policy, and that it is being implemented consistently.

The Headteacher will act with the utmost integrity on all matters relating to gifts and hospitality, ensuring that they set a good example to the rest of the school and trust and to those outside the organisation.

The Executive Headteacher will also ensure, alongside the MAT Business Manager that decisions on whether individuals or the trust can accept or offer gifts or hospitality with a value of over £25 are in line with this policy.

4.4 The MAT Business Manager

The MAT Business Manager will ensure that:

4.5 The MAT Office Manager

5. Acceptable gifts and hospitality

5.1 Offers of gifts and hospitality received

Members, trustees and staff can accept gifts and hospitality that have a value of up to £25. These do not have to be pre-approved or recorded on the gifts and hospitality register.

Generally, gifts of nominal value, such as small tokens of appreciation, may be accepted. If in any doubt, members, trustees and staff must consult the MAT Business Manager or Executive Headteacher.

Similarly, hospitality such as working lunches may be accepted in order to maintain good relationships with key contacts, provided the hospitality is reasonable in the circumstances. If in doubt, guidance must be sought from the MAT Business Manager, Executive Headteacher.

Any gifts or hospitality offered with a value of over £25 must be recorded on the gifts and hospitality register within 7 working days, even if declined. Any member, trustee or member of staff who is offered such gifts or hospitality must consult the MAT Business Manager or Executive Headteacher before accepting.

Failure to declare any offer of gifts or hospitality on the register in line with this policy will be treated as a staff disciplinary matter.

5.2 Offers of gifts and hospitality given

- Typical offers of hospitality may be refreshments at twilight meetings
- Where any member of staff, member or trustee is expecting to raise an expense, this must be agreed prior to the event with the MAT Business Manager, Executive Headteacher or Headteacher/Head of School.
- On residential training courses, staff can claim for their evening meal and accommodation – but the details of both needs to be agreed with the MAT Business Manager.
- Expenses cannot be claimed for alcohol.

Any gifts or hospitality provided by the trust, such as a working lunch for visitors, must not be extravagant. A maximum value of £25 per head. Alcohol must not be purchased out of the school budget.

Expense claims should be made to the MAT Business Manager / MAT Office Manager and receipts must always be provided.

The MAT Business Manager or Executive Headteacher must be consulted about any proposal to provide gifts or hospitality with a value of over £25.

- Monetary gifts
- Gifts or hospitality offered to family members, partners or close friends of members, trustees or staff

- Lavish or extravagant gifts or hospitality, even if they relate to activities the recipient undertakes in their own time

This list is not intended to be exhaustive.

7. Declining gifts and hospitality

Any members, trustee or staff member who is offered any of the unacceptable gifts or hospitality outlined in section 6 above should politely decline the offer.

If they feel it would not be appropriate for them to decline, they should refer the matter to the Executive Headteacher or MAT Business Manager. The Executive Headteacher or MAT Business Manager may decline the offer, or donate the gift or hospitality to a worthy cause, and must also record the offer on the gifts and hospitality register.
